"When I paint, I'm painting"

Michael Ferner, an artist of life

Life with its multifaceted variations is the exhaustless inspiration for his art. Travelled far and wide and thereby seen a lot. Whether from the Far East or the region of the close Tuscany in Italy. Ferner's floral preference finds its way always into his art. Fine black ink technique on delicate paper expresses his philosophic matters in a soft way. A hint with a lotus leaf finds its analogy in the twinkling wordless raven humor.
